BY RECAPTIVE.

Now, full high his grand broad banner,
Has the winter bird so burl:
Wide has spread his crimson mantle,
Over all the frozen world.
Now, the song-birds all have left us,
And the flowers all are dead;
Now, from this cold land this sad;
And the storm-wind cold and angry,
Hurls its requiem wild and drear,
Bleating in its fury!
Hag in its fury!
Howls the requiem wild and drear.

But with love hearts food and lovin',
We can meet the cold and drear.
For we know the time no other,
With the winter will have passed.
Then, oh, soon will the snow-mountain,
Then the blossoms more make man,
Then the flowers bloom again;
No with cold earth from our feet,
Wait for the springtime soft and fair,
Wait for the springtime soft and fair,
Wait for the springtime soft and fair.

After the thylo maiden season,
Then, bright summer comes along,
Then the meadows rich with bloom,
Then the roses full of song.
Then 'neath such a blue and sunny,
We, our happy happy sails unfurl;
Nail, my sweet, mid 'till this beauty,
To us 'till we have made it all.
Paradise looms summer sea,
With his winds so warm and free,
Hasten then, oh summer!
With your winds so warm and free,
Washington, Ky., January 6, 1884.

The election for State Librarian will take place to-morrow. It has for a number of years been conceded that this is a woman's office, and, therefore, the fight is among the ladies only.

The great body of Mormons come from England, Scotland, Wales, Denmark, Sweden and Norway. England has supplied round numbers, 20,000 of them; Scotland, 3,200; Wales, 2,400; Sweden, 3,700; Denmark, 7,791; Norway, 1,200; Ireland, 1,600. About the character of the British and Danish contributions there is very little doubt—both the men and the women belong to a low, ignorant, peasant class. The same thing is true, though probably in a less degree, of the Scandinavian contribution.

Concerning the Bar Meeting.

MAZEVILLE, Ky., January 10, 1884.
121 Bulletin: Reference is made to the meeting held in this city on the 23d inst., the writer of a local in your issue of last Monday is at some pains to say that several young attorneys who had participated in the meeting have since been circulating "a petition protesting against the action of the bar," and get him to oppose the legislation "asked for" by all of the senior and most of the junior members of the bar" in this city, but since our courts were not created for the especial benefit of "all of the senior and most of the junior members of the bar," it seems somewhat strange to the writer here that complaint should be made against the "several young attorneys," who thus dare attempt to influence our representative "by an appeal to the law making power, through the sacred and constitutional right of petition, and that should be made the subject of local because, forsooth, they afford others besides "all the senior and most of the junior members of the bar" a point of view to be heard upon a question which so nearly concerns business men of the town and county, nor is his unassumed by your announcement that each a question is not your "fight," surely, Mr. Editor, any "fight" is yours which affects the rights of the people and tax payer of your county, and if your purpose was not to attack the "several young attorneys," but to assist in an effort to rid our people of a useless expense and trouble, then just as surely you should make it your "fight," and show to your readers how they can "well dispense with the cost of having the grand and petit jurors assemble four times per year," as you say. The average mind will, however, find it difficult to understand how this can be done when it is remembered that our jurors are paid by the day for their services, and if they be needed for a given number of days in each year it can make little difference in the cost whether their labor is divided into four times, or whether they perform the whole thereof at one time. There is just so much business to be done, and when the jurors have attended to it, they are discharged. Our Judge is paid a certain salary per year, whether our terms be four or one. Our Clerks and Sheriffs receive pay for what they do. Why, then, should a change be made? How can it be to our interest to do so? The writer can think of but one person to be benefited thereby, and that person is our worthy Jailer. Instead of emptying our jail four times a year as we now do, we, if the proposed change be made, have to board our prisoners from October to April. The writer has not the figures at hand but his information is that our late excellent Senator and worthy representative, Hon. James Shackelford and R. A. Cochran, investigated the matter very lately before the passage of the law now existing and found our present arrangement greatly to the interest of our people as an economic measure. Then why not let good enough alone? Vox Populi.

FOREIGN NEWS.

EXPRESS PROMOTED, WITH A STRONG ATTITUDE.

CAIRO, Jan. 10.—The Egyptian Ministry has ordered the troops under the command of Zoubir Pasha not to enter the Sudan, and has also black recruiting black troops under him. After having been virtually a slave prisoner, with a certain limited amount of freedom, for the past ten years, Zoubir Pasha has, since the late crisis, after some hesitation, been appointed to the command of the black contingent of the Sudan expeditionary force. With characteristic caution, however, his wife and family were to have been detained at Cairo to serve as some sort of hostage to insure his good behavior, much as he himself was formerly kept at a gunnase for his son. A few days ago it was discovered he had sent his wife secretly to Khartoum. As soon as this discovery was made, Zoubir was arrested, but at liberty next day, and was kept under surveillance. It is said the Ministry will relieve Zoubir Pasha of the command of the black contingent in the dealings with internal affairs from the one in charge under the former Ministry, which were highly betrayed and allowed the tribes of Egypt by abject bribery and force.

REMARKS INQUIRY AS TO JOSE.

BREMER, Jan. 10.—Prince Bismarck has taken his inquiries as to the difficulties in the maritime provinces of Germany whether the necessary business interests of the provinces exempt from the prohibition law in relation to American ports. Similar inquiries will be made at Bremen and Hamburg. It is thought the result will be a modification of the law, so as to admit American ports, if found free of latent having been inspected by the Government inspectors.

AT LANT A BATTLE.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—A dispatch received here says that General Biche, while on a reconnoitering expedition, advanced some miles beyond Sontay, and that he found the country clear to Hung-bow had been abandoned. The Austrians are flocking to Hainaut, and are on them. At Hainaut is purely Chinese, and that a number of rifles were found at Sontay with the Austrians, and on them. A number of papers have also been found at Hainaut and Sontay, compromising the Chinese officials at both these places. Two thousand Austrians attacked a French post near Hainaut on December 28, but were repulsed by fifty marines with a loss of forty killed and sixty wounded. The French casualties numbered fifty. The French troops under Colonel Brionval have routed the practical bands in the Nam-Dinh province.

TALK OF WAR'S HORRORS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 10.—It is reported that Abyssinian troops have taken and sacked the town of Kosen, slaughtering the Egyptians who defended it. Three Arabian officers have been arrested, and evidence establishing the connection of others with the affair in possession of the authorities. An outbreak is feared.

THEY MAY ABANDON ROPE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 10.—Thirty-seven students of the Moscow University have been arrested on a charge of complicity in the nihilist conspiracy, which was revealed by papers found in the house of the late Lieutenant Colonel Suderkin.

STILL A SLAVEHOLDER.

A Moulinselle Offers Two Slaves Negroes for Sale.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 10.—A correspondent of the Baltimore American, from Staunton, Va., gives the following particulars of a remarkable scene in the streets of Staunton. A strange reminder of the anti-slavery struggle was witnessed a short time ago in the busy streets of the peaceful City of Staunton, in the Valley of Virginia. A sturdy mountaineer from Focobas county, Va., had made his way from his secluded fastness in an outlying district across the Cheat and Allegheny Mountains, 100 miles to the nearest center of civilization, to make sale of some stock, the fluctuations in whose value once sent a throng to the crowded, noisy and high and isolated city life, he had not heard of "war's alarms," and he was in a state of confusion incident to "secession" had disturbed the peaceful routine of his life. He had brought his flocks, cultivated the soil and prospered, until the war broke out, his consumption. Reckoned among the wealthy that could be disposed of, as no longer necessary for his support, he had been driven to the city, and it was more particularly to sell them that he had gotten the consent of his mind to make the journey to the nearest point within the pale of civilization. What he asked for a slave trader with whom he had bargained, him looked curiously at each other for an explanation of this peculiar line of madness. But the old farmer was resolute in his determination to sell what was his own, and repudiated the suspicion that he was a crank. After a slight hush in the talk the younger portion of the crowd, seeing the futility of their efforts to make the old fellow comprehend the changed order of things, determined to stand on the block and give the points of interest and genealogy of many such an animal, was hushed up, and the proceedings commenced for an actual sale. The teeth, eyes, limbs, etc., were examined critically, and offers made in cash, some of which, however, satisfied the old man. He declared that they had been reared with the utmost care, and that there was no spot or blemish about them. He seemed to enjoy the fun more than the colored portion of the crowd, the duds element of which took in the best of the old man's stupidity. But the merriment of the crowd made no impression on the old man's mind. He made his way in dignified out of the town on the pike leading back to his home, conscious, no doubt, of his superiority in wealth and power over the jostling crowd which followed him. When last seen he and his dusky property were on their way to the city to enjoy a life free from the vice of an unrelenting civilization.

Mrs. Langley Injuncted.

New York, Jan. 10.—Judge Ingraham of the Superior Court, yesterday granted a preliminary injunction against Mrs. Langley on the part of Harley Campbell, for a violation of Campbell's proprietary right in the title of the play entitled "Verdi," now being played in the Fifth Avenue Theatre. The order was made returnable Saturday next, when a motion to make the injunction permanent will be argued.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 11, 1884.

ROBERT & MCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors.
No. 1000 Adams St. CHICAGO, ILL.

Ring on false pride in place and blood,
Theoretic glances and the spite;
Ring in the common love of good,
Ring in the love of truth and right.
Ring in the love of duty and of law,
The noblest form of party strife,
With sweetest memory, pure law,
Ring in the noblest mode of life.

Ice about four inches thick was put up by some of the ice men this week.

Mr. CHARLES CALVERT, at Helena Station, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 8th inst. Nothing was saved.

A TELEGRAM was received in Mayville, this morning, setting out Mrs. Mary E. Wheatly, of Mayfield, at the point of death. She is the mother of Mr. Thos. Wheatly, late of this city.

THERE was some discussion last night at the council meeting concerning the bond presented by John Carmichael, as Assessor, but it managed to scratch through finally and was declared sufficient.

A PROTRACTED meeting will begin at the Baptist Church on Sunday next. Preaching in the morning and evening and every evening during the coming week. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. H. Allen Trapper, of Harrodsburg, and Rev. W. T. Jolly, of Mayville. All are cordially invited to attend.

Oil of wintergreen mixed with an equal quantity of olive oil or soap liniment and applied externally is said to afford instant relief. At all events it is a cheap experiment, and there is nothing offensive in the smell of the mixture, and this is as good a time as any to try it.

At a meeting of Haucke's Reed and Brass Band, held Thursday evening, the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year:

President—Joseph Lowry,
Secretary and Treasurer—John Methews,
Manager—J. W. Taylor,
Overseer of Music—J. C. Cole,
First Leader—John Taylor,
Second Leader—John Methews,
Janitor—Anthony Ray.

Death of James N. Morrison.

Mr. James N. Morrison, who has been ill for several months past, died on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at his home, near this city, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. The funeral will take place this afternoon at half past two o'clock from the residence, after services by Dr. J. A. Henderson. Friends who desire to attend the funeral should notify Mr. Ed. Myall, who will send carriages for them.

The death of Mr. Morrison will quiet the title to a large portion of real estate, once belonging to his late wife, James Morrison. At the death of the latter, his estate was left in equal shares to two of his children, James N. Morrison and his sister, if either of whom died without issue living, it went to the survivor, and if both died without issue, it was devised over to certain collateral heirs. The sister died soon after marriage without leaving issue, and James N. Morrison, who afterwards married and had children, took all the estate. His wife leaves living issue, and the title of the estate is believed to be now good in his vendee, the devise over to collateral heirs being defeated by the survivorship of his children.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court, since our last report:

Patrick Dugan and wife to M. W. Skinner, note and lot on West side of Vine street; consideration, $1,000.

George Andrews, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was for twenty years before his removal to Lowell, afflicted with salt rheum in its worst form. Its ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883.

Who is the Prettiest Girl in America? Is a question that would perplex a congress of connoisseurs assembled to nominate the most beautiful. But such an assemblage would not be surprised to learn, that the most charming of their sex, on this side of the Atlantic, enhance the beauty and perfect the loveliness of their teeth with Soodon, since everybody knows, that the ladies prefer it to any and all dentifrices. Let no man say after this, that women lack judgment.

The Sea of Oblivion
would long since have swallowed up Soodon in common with so many forgetful tooth pastes and dentifrices, did not the experience of a whole nation prove that it possesses signal advantages. It thoroughly cleans the teeth, dissolving and removing their impurities; it revives their fading whiteness and strengthens their relaxing hold upon their sockets; it renders colorless, discolored gums hard and healthy; and besides neutralizing an unsavory breath, invades it with its own fragrance.

A MOST REMARKABLE ACCIDENT

A Locomotive from Ram Dashes Among a Gang of Laborers.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 10.—A disastrous and incomprehensible accident occurred between eight and nine o'clock last evening at Duquesne station on the Pennsylvania Railroad, about eight miles from Pittsburgh. A gang of men were at work near the station, shoveling snow from the tracks, when a locomotive proceeded. A large snow pile tumbled into the path of the train. The result was fatal. Seven men were taken up terribly injured. Two of them died while being taken to the city, and a third expired shortly after reaching the West Pennsylvania Hospital. The four are now lying in the hospital in a precarious condition, but one of them remaining unconscious, and the others in a state of collapse. The German, who had never before worked on a railroad, and was only employed in an emergency to clear away snow from the tracks. There is a sharp curve in the track where they were working and they did not notice the approach of the train. The snow pile was not running at the usual rate of speed, but owing to the curve and darkness the engineer did not see the men in time to stop. Three of the men will probably recover.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

Financial.
New York, Jan. 10.—Money loaned at 14/100 per cent. The stock market, with the exception of a slight interval of weakness, shortly after opening, was strong and advanced steadily on the advance to the close, when prices were at about the best of the day. The advance was well distributed and nearly every stock on the list participated, but the greatest improvement was in Michigan Central. The strength and improvement in the stock market was attributed to buying by Vanderbilt. Union Pacific was another feature of the dealings, and was steadily supported. The buying of this stock was said to be for the account of some large operators and Boston parties. The strength and sharp advance in these shares had the effect of causing a stampede among the bears, who, fearing a squeeze, began to cover, while offerings were less frequent. As a consequence the list, with but few exceptions, was strong, and closed, aside from the two stocks named, 1/4 to 1/2 per cent higher. The strength of the entire market is said to be mainly due to the support on the part of a clique of large operators formed for the purpose.
